Objective of Activity: Development of managerial skill among women

- VENUE: - 1st floor FY B.com class
- TIME:- 11:00 pm to 12:40 pm

On 28th of Sept, 2017 Saturday a guest lecture was arranged on women empowerment. The lecture was delivered by Dr. NEETA MISHRA. The session described how the role of women is changing in modern times, management and the goals which we have achieved or which we want to achieve in future.

The session started with the welcoming of Dr. NEETA MISHRA. Then the session proceeded with the introduction of lecturer which was given by our Principal Ma'am Dr. SNEHAL DONDE.

Speaker engaged students in various activities such as- all students shuffled by giving them group numbers, then gave a task to decide their group name and its 3 characteristics which are as follow:-

| Sr. No. | NAME OF GROUP | Characteristics 1 | Characteristics 2 | Characteristics 3 |
|---------|----------------|-------------------|-------------------|----------------------|
| 1. | All is Well | Unity | Respect | Active |
| 2. | Oswal rockers | Coordination | Punctuality | Management |
| 3. | Smile | Happiness | Positive | Motivational support |
| 4. | Obstacle | Motivational | Energy | Positiveness |
| 5. | Golden carrier | Realistic | Time | Achievable |
| 6. | Uddan | Cooperation | Time management | |
| 7. | Timing | Punctuality | Let set go | Be on time |

Then speaker said decide any two leader two from each group. Then all leaders were called and were asked about their group names and characteristics, then, speaker gave a balloon to each of the group leaders and said to blow the balloon and write the name of the group and first initial of all the group members.

Speaker proceeded with giving another task to write down all the past achievements and goals whichever is it good or bad and also said that each one has to write the upcoming or future goals which they have to achieve within 3 to 5 years. Then she passed a piece of paper in which each of the student had to write the 5 sacrifices which they have to do for achieving their goals and also to write the 3 new things or habits which they want to buildup.

Then speaker gave another task to all the group if they got 86400 to spend then what they will do, with a condition that [they cannot invest in bank or any L.I.C.] and also this spending should be described by all the above 3 characteristics. Few groups performed an act showing distribution of money while few group showed the distribution of money orally in different fields and few group performed an interview showing the social problems and distributed the money accordingly. With continuing activity speaker hid all the balloons in which the group member's first initial and group name was written and selected two random members from each of the group. Then speaker gave the target of 1 minute in which the group members have to search the balloons of their group. The member who completed the target in 1 minute speaker said the person is smart which means and stands for Specific Measurable Action Relevant Time-bond. The purpose was to create or develop sense of alertness and leadership among the girls. Hence the program had ended in success.

Through this session students learned the managerial skill and also learned how to manage the time and act on behalf. She gave motivation to girls regarding upcoming goals of life. The entire session not only motivated but also inspired the girls and the concept of women empowerment.
