Activity : 'Elocution Competition'

Objective of the activity : To Develop language and communication skill among the volunteers & aware them about various information about selected topics.

Time : 12:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Agenda of the activity:

- To encourage students to participate in competition
- To gain experience regarding updated information in relevant topics and their importance
- To boost communication and presentation skills of the volunteers
- To make students understand the importance and essential aspects required for an overall good delivery of speech
- To encourage students to prepare and speak regarding current affairs of the society

Execution:

The NSS volunteers organized and arranged an elocution competition on 1st October, 2018. NSS Program Officer, Mr. Yogesh Pawar, instructed students about the essentials of a good speech delivery. He asked the participants to focus on time, coverage or proximity of the selected topic, factual information in link with numerical data or statistics and a well-rehearsed idea. He also explained the importance of the rules of speech such as ascent of the language used, gestures and postures, space utilization and voice modulation. The competition began at 12:30 p.m. and ended at 2:30 p.m. The participants did their best competing with each other. The topics for the elocution were:

1. Water Conservation
2. Social Media
3. Green India
4. Women Empowerment
5. Swachh Bharat Abhiyan

The participants for the competition were:

1. Chirag (T.Y.B. Com)
2. Nilesh (T.Y.B. Com)
3. Pranjal (S.Y.B. Com)
4. Jagruti (S.Y.B. Com)
5. Hema (F.Y.B. Com)
6. Divya (F.Y.B. Com)

7. Pooja (F.Y.B. Com)
8. Mona (F.Y.B. Com)

Each and every volunteer present for the Elocution Competition learned something new. The outcome of the activity was fruitful.

Outcome:

- 1.) The students' attitude towards public speaking changed.
- 2.) The communication skills and presentation skills of the volunteers improved.
- 3.) The volunteers understood the importance of participation and effective speaking.
- 4.) They learned to ensure proper use of words and language during delivery of speech.
- 5.) The activity helped boost the confidence of the volunteers.
- 6.) The activity proved to be a learning experience for the volunteers.
- 7.) The activity was conducted successfully.

Feedback:

The students were happy and had really enjoyed being a part of a competition that helped them understand various aspects of a good speech. They were eager to learn more and implement the same in their daily life.
